HALLOWEEN

Here are some photos of the Halloween party we had at the Institute. A big THANKS to all the students who went to the trouble to look FANTASTIC ☺

THE TEACHERS – Looking good ☺

Student's Work

My friend Susan

Her name is Susan and she's 22 years old. She studies Medicine. She wants to be a paediatrician because she likes children very much.

She lives in Santo Tirso.

She has got blue eyes, blond hair and she's fair. She's slim and tall. She's a very pretty woman!

She's talkative and funny. She doesn't smoke.

She likes travelling and going to parties.

She doesn't like lazy people and Indian food.

(Maria Fernanda Gouveia – A adults – S. Tirso)

One night while John was sleeping he had a bad dream. He was at home with his mum and suddenly they heard someone crying. They went to the window and they saw Mrs Smith, their neighbour crying because she had been "robbed".

John and his mother went to help her. She asked them to call the police and while John's mother went home to phone the police, John stayed with Mrs Smith trying to calm her. John said he was sure that her purse would appear very soon.

The next morning John told his parents about his dream. A few days later a policeman went to John's house with a purse that was found by some old man in a garden near there. "I knew it!" said John, and he always believed in his dreams from that day on.

(Ana Cristina, C Teens, St Tirso)

My name is Anna. I'm a teacher and I teach Informatics in an elementary school in Famalicão. I live in Ribeirão. I always travel to work by car. I'm married and Adão is my husband. I have two children.

I usually get up at half past seven and I have a shower at twenty five to eight.

I have breakfast at ten to eight.

I normally leave home at eight o' clock.

I always start work at twenty past eight in the morning.

I like my job because I love children and I can do everything with them but I don't earn a lot of money.

I sometimes go home at twenty past one p.m. and I have lunch with my son Peter.

I sometimes go shopping after work and I cook dinner.

On Mondays and Fridays I go swimming in the pool of Famalicão at six o' clock.

On Saturdays I go shopping and I go jogging.

On Sunday mornings I usually go to church with my husband and children and after I sometimes cook a lunch or I go to a restaurant with my family.

On Mondays I watch TV and read a book.

I always have a cup of coffee in the morning and I go to bed at half past eleven.

Aria was with her baby sister, Spencer, alone at home because their parents were working.

Aria was on the second floor of the house, in her room, doing her homework and her baby sister was sleeping on the first floor. Suddenly, she started crying and when Aria got to the baby's room she was really scared. Pieces of the ceiling were falling down! the first thing that she did was to put Spencer in the yard to be sure that she wasn't going to get hurt. Then she called 911 and while they were coming she picked up some important things like some food, drinks and family albums. She was so frightened! Aria was afraid that the house would fall! When the ambulance arrived, they took Aria and Spencer to their father's office and they told him what happened. 911 advised them to live in another place for a while just until the house was ready.

Now everything has come back to normal and all thanks to Aria!

(Luisa Vale, B Teens, St Tirso.)

Once upon a time, me and my brother Miguel had this party in honor of the President of United States of America, Barack Obama, at the white house.

We've never been there but we're looking forward to it because it doesn't happen everyday. The big day finally came, and my homie Cristiano Ronaldo caught us up at the hotel, he was with his girlfriend.

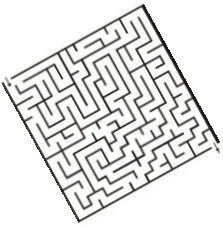

So we arrived at the white house, and the first step I made out of the car, three security revised me, and I asked:
-What are you looking for? And they said:

-Bombs

I was shocked but I said to myself, this is a big deal.

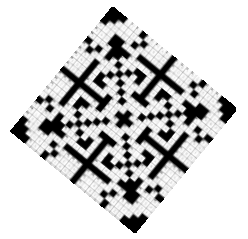

I walked into the big front door with my bro, Ronaldo and Irina, when it opened, I saw all movie stars, singers, models were there, but suddenly I saw Justin Bieber. I looked to my bro, he did the same and we never went into that house again.
