In my opinion, it is better to go on holiday with friends than with family. Of course, both family and friends are good to go on holiday with, but if I had to choose, I would choose to go on holidays with friends.

People often agree that it's cheaper to go on holidays with parents, but in my opinion that's not true.

First of all, when you go on holidays with your friends, your family pays for it and they only have to pay one trip, which is cheaper.

Secondly, it is true that if somebody is your friend, they tend to have the same interests that you have, so it is more fun with friends, because sometimes you like to do something but your family doesn't, so you don't do it. That's why I think that it is more fun to go on holiday with friends.

Thirdly, I truly believe that when we go with friends we can meet other people more easily than with your family, because with your family you go on holidays to enjoy time with your family only.

In conclusion, I think that going on holidays with friends tends to be more fun, cheaper and more advantageous than with your family.

Dear Anita,

Hi! How's it going?

Thanks a lot for your postcard.

Today was my first day back to school after the summer holidays. My school is called D. Dinis and it is in St Tirso. There are over a thousand students there. It's big! The new students in my class are very friendly. I've made one new friend so far – a girl called Adriana, who I sit next to in maths. She is really cool and she helped me find my way around.

I love my school because there are a lot of rooms and a big canteen. The gym is comfortable and there are very good teachers. My favourite is the maths teacher because she is very friendly and she explains maths really well.

Anyway, I'd better go now. Mum wants me to help with the housework before I do my homework. Take care and stay in touch.

Lots of love,

(Ana Margarida – C teens – ST)
